

Ashleigh Drive is the newest subdivision in the village started by developer, Bruce Thomas. It is a 60.9 acre parcel located south off Bell Road at the South Russell/Newbury Corporation line, the most easterly section of the village. It was developed where the former Kingswood Gun Club was located.

Ashleigh Drive became a dedicated road on September 23, 2002. There are 18 lots in this development. All homes are on septic systems and wells.

Voting is in Precinct D located at the South Russell Service Building.
